

Stand Together for Change

ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

Charitable" is a great word to describe the mission of Stand Together for Change (STC), a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the lives of children with disabilities from low-income families. The organization's goal is to provide access to rehabilitation services and other essential needs, helping these children to overcome the challenges they face and reach their full potential.

WHAT WE DO

Here is a list of charitable activities that Stand Together for Change (STC) might undertake to support children with disabilities from low-income families:

- Rehabilitation services: Providing access to physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy to help children with disabilities develop their abilities and reach their full potential.
- Medical treatment: Assisting families with the cost of medical treatment for children with disabilities, including surgeries, medications, and rehabilitation services.
- Educational support: Supporting children with disabilities in their education by providing tutoring, assistive technology, and other resources to help them succeed in school.
- Accessible housing: Helping families find and afford accessible housing that meets the needs of children with disabilities, ensuring they have a safe and comfortable place to live.
- Community support: Providing support and resources for families, such as counseling, financial assistance, and transportation, to help them navigate the challenges of caring for a child with a disability.
- Recreational programs: Offering recreational programs and activities, such as sports and arts programs, to help children with disabilities develop new skills and build relationships with their peers.
- Advocacy: Advocating for the rights of children with disabilities, working to ensure they have access to the services and support they need to lead fulfilling lives.
- Awareness campaigns: Raising awareness about the challenges faced by children with disabilities and their families, and promoting inclusion and understanding within communities.

These are some of the ways that Stand Together for Change (STC) could support children with disabilities from low-income families. By providing a range of services and support, STC can help these children to reach their full potential and lead fulfilling lives.

Stand Together for Change is truly dedicated to helping those in need by providing compassionate and understanding care. Their team works to ensure the children and their families have access to the best treatment and resources available. Through their services, these children and their families are able to lead healthier and happier lives.

OUR HISTORY

Stand Together for Change, or STC for short. This remarkable organization was founded in 2021 by a physiotherapist called NDEGEYA Sylvain with the goal of helping and supporting children with disabilities from low-income families. The founders of STC saw a need in their community for an organization that could make a meaningful difference in the lives of these children, and they were determined to make that difference a reality.

From the beginning, the mission of Stand Together for Change was clear: to empower children with disabilities to reach their full potential and lead fulfilling lives. Through a range of services, including rehabilitation, medical treatment, educational support, accessible housing, and community support, STC has worked tirelessly to make this mission a reality. In just a short time, the organization has already made a significant impact, helping children with disabilities and their families to overcome the challenges they face and achieve their goals. This organization started with nothing unless the families and knowledge of the team to support.

But what truly sets Stand Together for Change apart is the spirit of its founders and volunteers. They are driven by a deep sense of compassion and a desire to make a positive difference in the world. They believe that by working together, they can help children with disabilities to break down barriers and reach new heights. And they are inspired by the resilience, courage, and determination of the children they serve, who despite facing incredible challenges, never give up on their dreams.

This is the story of Stand Together for Change, a story of hope, compassion, and the power of the human spirit. It is a story that inspires us to come together, to stand up for what is right, and to make a difference in the world. By supporting this remarkable organization, we can help children with disabilities to reach their full potential and lead fulfilling lives. And we can show that by working together, we can achieve anything we set our minds to.

So, my friends, let us stand together for change. Let us be a part of this inspiring story, and let us help children with disabilities to reach new heights. Thank you.
